Meeting for worship in the manner of Friends
(Quakers)
1-2 p.m.

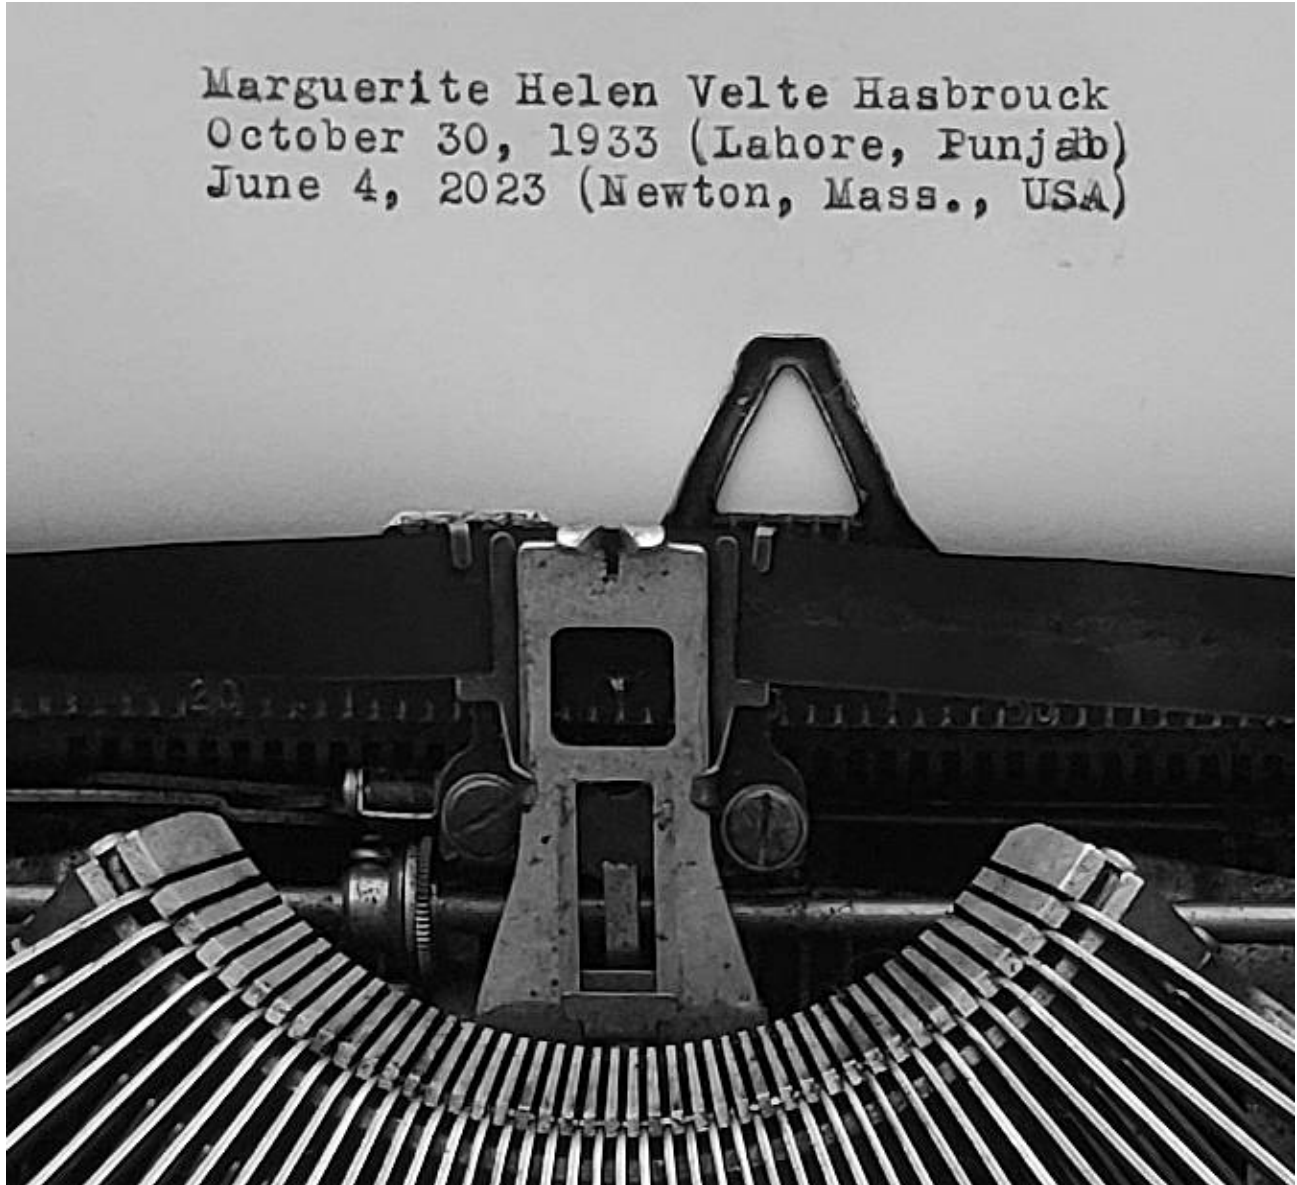

Quakerism has few doctrines, but Friends believe deeply that the Inner Light lives in each of us. We gather in silence for worship and we all contribute. During the meeting for worship, anyone who is moved to do so is free to rise and share their thoughts, feelings, and memories about Marguerite. Nobody is obligated to speak, and it customary to share no more than once, when you are clear on your message, and to allow a pause between messages for reflection. The meeting for worship ends with a greeting to one's neighbors.

Please to come to the microphone if you have a message to share, so that those joining us remotely can hear. Masks are encouraged, but if you feel comfortable doing so, please consider removing your mask when you are speaking, so that others can hear you more clearly.
